DAVID HODGIN DEAD.

Funeral Preached By Rev. Albert Peele, of Friends Church.

Mr. David Hodgin, of Sumner, this county, died at his home on Saturday of Bright's disease. He was the father of our townsmen D. A. Hodgin, salesman for Odell Hardware Co., Eugene Hodgin, of the firm of Hodgin & Rankin, Jess Hodgin, with C. M. Vanstort & Co., and S. A. Hodgin, recently of the McAdoo, now in the revenue service in Raleigh.

The deceased was about 68 years old and leaves a wife and several children in addition to those mentioned above. He was a prominent citizen and represented this county in the legislature during the reconstruction period. His funeral was preached at Center church today by Rev. Albert Peele, of the Friends church at 12 o'clock.

To Be Congratulated.

The problem that seems to be agitating the minds of some of the citizens of this city is how Manager Griffith could manage to stage an opera company of forty people. I wish to say that I have seen and examined the opera house and I find it amply large to meet all the requirements, and the people are to be congratulated on having so near a little theatre in their city, and I wish to say further that Manager Griffith is the right man in the right place, and with the encouragement of the citizens he will give them the very best class of attractions it has ever been their pleasure to attend in this city.

There is none better than "Andrews Opera company" and they will open the Opera House this season on Friday night with "Flotow's" beautiful opera "Martha" to be followed on Saturday night with "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pirates of Penzance." Congratulating the citizens of Greensboro on having such grand operas presented by such a grand company of artists, I am very truly, F. L. Hunt, Bus. Mgr. Andrews Opera Co.

Three Of The Finest.

We venture the assertion that there are at this time no finer buildings going up in all North Carolina than the following three, which are now being erected in this city:

The new office building of the Southern Guarantee and Investment Co., on East Market street, five stories, to contain one hundred rooms; the new Well building on South Elm, granite front, four stories, to be occupied by wholesale firms, and the handsome passenger depot of the Southern Railway.

We repeat, they are second to none in the state, either complete and occupied or now in process of construction. Watch the city of Greensboro.

A Good Business.

The Telegram is pleased to note the success with which Mr. C. Gresham, proprietor of the railroad eating house is meeting. Mr. Gresham came to Greensboro from Charlotte only a short while ago and established his business in the old Vernon house, recently removed to the rear of Clegg's hotel. He employs only competent and polite help and is now doing a good business. Saturday morning, on very short notice, he prepared breakfast for fifty-seven sailors and they all went away praising him.

Letters to Santa Claus.

Dear Old Santa Claus—I am a little girl six years old. Please bring me a story book, a bracelet, also some candies and nuts. Your little girl, Gracie Hlatt.

Dear Old Santa—Won't you bring me a nice doll, some candy, peanuts and raisins. I have a little sister, here name is Irene. Please bring her a doll too. Your little Mary Hlatt.

An Assault.

Saturday afternoon Lee McCollum, colored, assaulted Mr. Rank Thomas, with a rock. The two men were disputing over a settlement when the negro became enraged and seized a large rock, threw it at Mr. Thomas, making a bad wound on the latter's arm. The negro ran, but was caught in South Greensboro at short notice and taken to the police station by Officers Pearce and Whittington, who looked him up. He is a large, desperate looking fellow and has been in trouble before.

Christmas Fowl.

A train consisting of nine freight cars, loaded with turkeys, geese and pigeons, passed through Greensboro shortly after noon yesterday, going north. The birds were closely packed in crates and must have numbered far into the thousands. The turkeys were decidedly in the majority, showing that that bird is not losing favor with the Yankees.

LAST DAY OF SOUTHERN TOUR

The Presidential Party At Macon, Georgia.

THE PROGRAMME FOR TODAY.

General Lawton Stops at Huntsville, to Take Command While Gen. Wheeler Is In Congress.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Macon, Ga., Dec. 19.—President McKinley awoke a few miles out from Macon this morning, for the last day of sight-seeing and entertainment on his southern trip. The special train bearing the presidential party reached here at 8:30. The weather was cloudy and threatening.

General Lawton left the party here to take command, temporarily, at Huntsville, while General Wheeler is attending to his duties in Congress. Later in the forenoon it began to rain. The programme as planned included a review of the troops under General Wilson. The party will leave Macon at noon and go to Augusta where the president will review Major Young's troops.

Trinity Students.

Professor Jerome Dowd, of Trinity College, accompanied by twenty-five young men and two young ladies of the class in economics, passed here today in a special car enroute to Washington to visit the various places of interest at the national capital. Their car was placarded from end to end with a long blue streamer with the words: "Trinity College, N. C." in white letters. They will return next Friday.

The following composed the party: Prof. Jerome Dowd, P. H. Hanes, Jr., E. C. Carpenter, J. M. Flowers, D. W. Newsome, Rev. Mr. Tyree, H. M. North, L. H. Asbury, T. T. Willis, J. J. Tyer, S. A. Stewart, J. R. Cowan, J. L. Nicholson, J. Peele, Miss Edna Kilgo, M. B. Clegg, J. Marvin Culbreth, L. W. Elias, Miss Elias, W. N. Parker, J. C. Breedslove, J. C. Wren, Jr., J. E. Pegram, W. H. Adams, J. H. Barnhardt, W. W. Card and Y. Yezoye.

Congressional Doings.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Under a motion to suspend the rules the house took up the bill to appropriate three hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the benefit of the Philadelphia exposition. After the debate allowed under the rules it was defeated, and a roll call demanded.

The appropriation to the Philadelphia museum has passed the senate. It had already passed the house.

Schooner Abandoned.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Dec. 19.—The White Star liner, Bovee, from New York, reports passing a large steamer showing lights not under command, and received no reply to signals. The crew of the American schooner Bertram N. White, Jacksonville for Philadelphia, were landed in South Holland from the British steamer, Eric, from Galveston. The schooner was abandoned Dec. 2.

Just a Little Row.

A crowd of drunken women raised a disturbance on "Cotton Row" yesterday afternoon. It was reported to the police that the "Row" was the scene of turmoil and strife and in fact all but bloodshed, but it turned out not so bad. Officers Jeffries and Scott went out and dispersed the crowd without making any arrests.

Adjourned for the Holidays.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The house has adjourned until Wednesday next.

Not Sentenced.

MR. MCKINLEY'S UTTERANCE

About Confederate Graves Making Him Famous.

ENDORSED BY REPRESENTATIVES

Pritchard and Tillman Urging Their Pension Bills—Another Southern Trip For The President.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The members of the North Carolina delegation, so far as seen, without exception, including Representative Kitchin, the only democratic member in the present delegation from the state, endorse President McKinley's utterances in his speech before the Georgia legislature, respecting the care of the Confederate dead by the entire union, north and south. The step, however, between caring for the dead, and caring for the living, is a very short space, and the members of the delegation, are unanimously in favor of extending the scope of the President's suggestions, so as to include those soldiers of the south who are striving to keep themselves from poverty and want.

The bill introduced by Representative Rixey, of Virginia, for the purpose of admitting Confederate soldiers to the various soldiers homes of the country, is a step in the right direction, and a prominent Virginian, a friend of the administration, is quoted as saying that the measure will have the hearty endorsement of President McKinley, and of the republican leaders in the senate and house of representatives. The members of the North Carolina delegation, are earnestly in favor of the prompt reporting of the bill from the committee on military affairs, and will give the measure, so far as can be ascertained, their undivided support in the house when it comes to a vote. While it is not known that it can be done, the suggestion has been made that the bill of Representative Rixey shall be reported promptly, taken up by the house and passed, and sent to the senate immediately, that the measure may be transmitted to President McKinley before the adjournment for the Christmas holidays. The signature of the President to such a measure would be a suitable celebration of the Christmas season, and a recognition of the sentiment "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina, who last week introduced a bill to grant a pension of fifty dollars per month to the widow of Lieutenant Shipp, who was killed during the siege at Santiago, has promised Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, to look after the measure, also to grant a pension to the widow of Col. Alston. Both of the bills are before the senate committee on military affairs. There seems to be no doubt but that Senator Pritchard will be able to secure the prompt reporting of the bills to the senate, though it may be delayed until after the Christmas holidays.

Senator Tillman, who introduced the latter bill, has been sick with a bad cold during the past few days, and has been prevented from attending the sessions of the senate, but he is now all right and will be his accustomed place in the senate during the present week. Hon. Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer and a member of the national democratic committee from North Carolina, was in Washington Friday and Saturday. Major Daniels in conversation stated that the coming session of the legislature will be a most interesting one, and that the subject of a new election law, making restrictions upon the right of suffrage, will be the leading topic discussed. The sentiment in favor of a constitutional amendment, patterned after that of South Carolina or Mississippi, he says, is very strong, though it is difficult to tell what policy will be adopted. Personally he declares himself in favor of taking the report of the Hawaiian commissioners, forming a government for that territory, as a model, for he says it accomplishes for Hawaii exactly what is desired in the south, the limitation of suffrage to the intelligent portion of the population.

It is very likely that another southern trip for president McKinley may be arranged in the spring, which will take him as far as Tampa, Florida and New Orleans. Already a delegation from New Orleans has been appointed to invite the president to visit that city at any time which may best suit his own personal convenience, and there is strong talk on the part of Charleston, South Carolina people, of inviting the president to attend the Confederate Veterans Reunion in May. Other cities in North and South Carolina, Alabama and Florida, are anxious to secure the presence of the chief magistrate.

William T. Lathan has been commissioned postmaster at Waterloo, North Carolina.

Mr. J. R. Talley, of Greensboro, is at the St. James Hotel.

MONDAY, DEC. 19, 1898.

The candidates for the public printing have not yet stepped out upon the track, but it is safe to say that they are being well groomed. The prize is a good one and the contest will be a warm one. Those who occupy the grand stand will witness an interesting race.

There is talk now of arranging another southern tour for President McKinley in the spring. The last trip has added much to his fame and popularity not because he is a particularly great or attractive man; but because he had sense enough to blow upon the south's æolian harp, an instrument which makes sweet music no matter where the wind comes from.

On and after Jan. 1st the Morning Post will offer off one-third of the present subscription price and serve the people at the low rate of $4.00 per year. This reduction is in keeping with the popular trend. Great newspapers from other states reach this state the day of publication and are sold at three and four dollars a year. It is patent that North Carolina papers must keep pace and the Morning Post takes the initiative. The new departure should, and no doubt will, double the Post's circulation in a short time. A first-class newspaper at a popular price is bound to be a winner.

New Newspapers.

Raleigh is soon to have a new weekly secular paper. The Maxton Blade outfit will be moved here this week and the paper will hereafter be known as the "Raleigh Blade." A new company is also being formed, it is said, to start a new afternoon paper here. It is proposed to call it the "Daily Capital."—News and Observer.

The banks now hold $16,973,395 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent rule.

By order of the Greensboro tobacco association, all the warehouses will be closed to the sale of leaf tobacco, from Friday December 23rd '98 to Tuesday January 3rd '99.

THE GREAT SHOE SALE.

What is Going On At the Carolina Shoe Company's.

Mr. Norris, the hustling manager of the Carolina Shoe Co., says they are meeting with phenomenal success in their great removal sale. All lines that they don't intend to carry in their new store are being sold, many of them, at less than half price.

The immense crowds attending the great removal shoe sale at the Carolina Shoe Co.'s and the quantities of shoes we are getting from this establishment is proof that they are offering rare bargains in footwear.

The Carolina Shoe Co. is closing out a line of ladies $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 hand-made shoes for $1.50. Such bargains are seldom offered in fine footwear.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?
Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?
If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by C. E. Holton.

During a scramble of children at a Brooklyn toy store to see Santa Claus, little Alvinia Atto was fatally hurt.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.
